Schurz, Carl—Continued.
relative to conditions in the South, III, 158-209 prepares general report of, III, 204 enters journalistic fraternity, III, 910 changes from New York Tribune to Detroit Post, III, 211 delegate to National Convention, III, 244 speeches of, in demand during Presidential campaign, III, 245 leaves Detroit Post for Westliche Post, III, 256 spends Christmas in Wiesbaden, III, 263-265 goes to Berlin, III, 265 visits Count Bismarck, III, 265-280 restores confidence in American securities, III, 281 returns to United States, III, 282 delegate to, and temporary chairman of Republican National Convention, III, 283 offers resolution on amnesty, III, 284, 285 experiences of, speech-making during Grant campaign, III, 286-292 selection of, as Senator from Missouri, III, 295-301 nomination and election of, to United States Senate, III, 301 conception of his duty, III, 302 is the bearer of congratulatory message to the President, III, 305 invited to the White House for conference, III, 307 gives reasons for opposing the Santo Domingo treaty, III, 307, 308 puts himself on record as to his political motives and belief, III, 316 introduces bill on civil-service reform, III, 317 characteristics and quality of his senatorial oratory, III, 318 supports the " moderates " in Congress, III, 319 general views of, in 1870, on Southern situation, III, 320 supports principles rather than party mandates, III, 321-323 succeeds Fessenden on committee on foreign relations, III, 324 short service of, on other committees, III, 324 attitude of, toward annexation of Santo Domingo, III, 323-330 recognized as leader of anti-administration Republican senators, III, 330 opposed to policy of the Government

Schurz, Carl—Continued.
in reference to the Ku-Klux, III, 330, 331 declares himself a "liberal Republican" and announces their creed, III, 332 charges "War Department with jobbery and corruption, III, 333-337 speeches of, advocating a cleansed and regenerated Republican party* III, 338-340 acknowledged leader of the Liberals, III, 342 chosen permanent chairman of Cincinnati Convention, III, 343 correspondence of, with Greeley, as to political jugglery at Cincinnati Convention, III, 348-351 issues call for conference as to outlook for political reform, III, 352 accepts philosophically Grant's re-election, III, 353 denounces legislative and administrative corruption, III, 354, 355 advocates sound money and early resumption, III, 356 judgment of, as to his three best speeches in Congress, III, 357 epigrammatic retort of, "when arraigned for leaving the regular Republican party, III, 358 attacks weak points in bill of famous Resumption Act, III, 359 senatorial career of, terminates in 1875, III, 360 last speech of, in the Senate, III, 361 visit to Europe of, and political activities, III, 362-364. early estimate of Blaine justified by later events, III, 365 political support of, solicited by Blaine, III, 366 address to the American people, prepared by, III, 367 supports Hayes for President, III, 368-373 assists Hayes to select Ms Cabinet, III, 373, 374 invited to a place in Hayes's Cabinet, III, 374 confirmed as Secretary of the Interior, III, 376 recognized as an authority on civil-service reform, III, 377 efforts of, in that connection, III, 377-381 policy of, in reference to Indian affairs, III, 383-390 sharp criticism of, by party leaders, III, 379, 383, 388, 390, 391, 392